Information Desk

The Information Desk in the entrance hall has all the information you need on our activities, lectures, tours, treasure hunts, schools programme, exhibitions and the artworks in the museum collection. Our staff will be happy to help you.

Treasure Hunt

Set off to explore Vincent's famous paintings. Answer the questions and complete the tasks: there'll be a small gift for you at the Information Desk if you get them all right! The Treasure Hunt is available in five languages: Dutch, English, French, Spanish and Italian. For children aged 6 to 12 (free of charge).

Vincent's Travelling Case

Children and their accompanying adults can pick up Vincent's Travelling Case at the Information Desk. It's packed with fun assignments in the museum for kids and grown-ups alike. The case is available in Dutch and English.

For children aged 6 to 12 and their accompanying adults. Best suited for small groups (free of charge).

Friday evening at the museum

The museum is open until 9 pm every Friday. From 7 pm onwards, you can enjoy cocktails, music and free tours. Looking for even more? In that case, come to Vincent on Friday - our unique monthly evening programme in collaboration with young creative artists and performers from Amsterdam.

Accessibility

The Van Gogh Museum offers good wheelchair access. Each storey is easily accessible by elevator, and wheelchairs, walking aids and folding stools are available in the museum. Our staff at the Information Desk will be happy to help you. Regrettably, the book shop on the third floor is not accessible to wheelchair, walking aid or pram users.

Luggage

The museum has a cloakroom where visitors are required to leave backpacks, umbrellas and larger bags and objects.

You can also leave your coat or small backpack (daypacks or school bags), but this is not compulsory. There are no lockers at the museum.

Multimedia Desk

Step into Van Gogh's world and make your museum visit a real experience with our award-winning multimedia tour.

Available in: Dutch, English, French, German, Spanish, Italian, Russian, Japanese, Chinese (Mandarin), Korean and Portuguese. Price: € 5 (adults) and € 3 (13-17 year-olds). Children up to the age of 12 join their parents for free.

Museum Shops

There are three shops in the Van Gogh Museum: the Flagship Store (entrance lobby), the Last-Minute Shop (ground floor) and the Book Shop (third floor). The Flagship Store offers a comprehensive range of products inspired by the museum's exhibitions and permanent collection. The Last-Minute Shop stocks a selection of these products. Our Book Shop on the third floor of the Main Building specialises in publications on Van Gogh's life and work, the museum collection and the art of his period.

Museum Café Le Tambourin

Le Tambourin, in the main building, serves a wide selection of freshly prepared hot and cold food, drinks and patisserie. Daily specials are available before noon and after 3 pm.

Also take a look at Koffij - the museum's coffee bar.

Free Wi-Fi

Free Wi-Fi is available throughout the building. Select the 'VanGoghMuseum' network, agree to the conditions and you're online.

Photography/filming

Photography and filming are not permitted in the museum except at certain designated places, including the 'Selfie Walls' and in the entrance lobby. Taking pictures or recording videos in the museum galleries causes too much inconvenience for other visitors.

Welcome to the Van Gogh Museum

The museum consists of two buildings: the Main Building and the Exhibition Wing. They are connected by the glass Entrance Hall.

The Main Building houses the museum's permanent collection, which features works by Van Gogh and his contemporaries. The Exhibition Wing hosts our temporary exhibitions.

The Van Gogh Museum is open 365 days a year.
